

Professional Boundaries Training:
Bringing Back Professionalism &
Resiliency in the Workplace

Friday, October 18, 2024 • 10:00 AM – 2:00 PM
Calvary Church 150 Harvest Fields Dr., Boalsburg

Our Trainers:

Evelyn Wald, MS, MDiv., LPC

Evelyn has 28 years of experience as a grief and loss counselor. She is the Program Director for TIDES and is well known in the Centre County Human Services world.

Jennifer Eisenhuth, BSEd., CTSS

Jennifer is the Training Coordinator and Recruiter at Strawberry Fields. She has over 25 years of experience in counseling, training & working in human services.

Cost:

- $20 for CCCHS Members / $35 for Non-Members
Coffee, Hot Tea, Water and a light lunch will be included for attendees.

Register:

Visit www.theccchs.org to register or scan QR Code

Join Us!

The goal of this training is to explore professional boundaries and understand what professionalism is in today's workplace.

The Day Will Include:

- Coffee, Hot Tea, Water & A Light Lunch
- Lecture
- Group Discussion
- Networking and Relationship Building

WHO SHOULD ATTEND? YOU! This training will be great for ALL LEVELS of your agency. The content will be focused on professional boundaries. Whether you attended last year's personal boundaries training or not, this will be NEW content focused on today's workplace. Join us!

Questions or need special accommodations?

Please contact Jennifer Eisenhuth at

JEisenhuth@sfionline.org or 814-234-6023 Ext. 157.